

U.S. BANK PREPAID ONLINE BANKING AGREEMENT

(EFFECTIVE 1/1/14)

Welcome to U.S. Bank Prepaid Online Banking. The U.S. Bank Prepaid Online Banking Agreement (“Agreement”) governs the use of all online banking services (“Online Services”) available on a computer through a traditional internet connection or on a mobile device through a mobile internet browser at www.usbank.focuscard.com, or through our prepaid mobile banking application (USBank Focus) available on Android or iPhone. Online Services include, but are not limited to, accessing prepaid account balance, prepaid account statements, transferring funds between eligible prepaid accounts (if applicable), and managing prepaid account alerts. Some Online Services are only available when accessed on a computer through a traditional internet connection. We also reserve the right to add or eliminate Online Services.

GENERAL TERMS

This Agreement is revised periodically and it may include changes from earlier versions. By accessing your prepaid account and engaging in other Online Services, you agree to the most recent version of this Agreement, which is available to you online at www.usbank.focuscard.com.

This Agreement provides the terms and conditions that apply to your use of the various Online Services and is in addition to other prepaid account agreements and disclosures. For example, if you view your prepaid account statements online, the terms and conditions of your prepaid account agreement do not change and continue to apply. If, however, there is a conflict between this Agreement and the terms and conditions of any disclosures or agreements between you and us that specifically address Online Services, this Agreement will control in resolving any inconsistencies between this Agreement and the terms in such other disclosure or agreement that also address Online Services.

DEFINITIONS

The following definitions apply in this Agreement except to the extent any term is separately defined elsewhere in this Agreement. The words “we,” “our,” and “us” mean U.S. Bank National Association, its affiliates, successors, and assigns (“U.S. Bank”).

The words “you” and “your” mean each prepaid account owner and anyone else with access to the prepaid account to perform the transactions or receive the services covered by this Agreement. If there is more than one owner, then these words mean each prepaid account owner separately, and all prepaid account owners jointly.

“Service Providers” means U.S. Bank, its affiliates, any processor or other third party that we have engaged to provide remittance capabilities, equipment, or other services in connection with any Online Service. This includes any agent, independent contractor, or subcontractor of any of the foregoing. You agree that we have the right under this Agreement to delegate to Service Providers all of the rights and performance obligations that we have under this Agreement, and that the Service Providers will be third party beneficiaries of this Agreement and will be entitled to all the rights and protections that this Agreement provides to us.

TERMS APPLICABLE TO ALL ONLINE SERVICES

ELIGIBILITY

To use the Online Services, you must:

- Be a U.S. Bank customer with an eligible prepaid account;
- Establish and maintain valid log-in credentials (including a personal ID and password) for Online Services; and
- Use the Online Services in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

Use of certain Online Services may require additional prepaid accounts or other eligibility requirements.

PREPAID ACCOUNT ACCESS

All of your eligible prepaid accounts are automatically associated with your online profile and you may access prepaid account information for any of your eligible prepaid accounts via Online Services. You can download and view prepaid account information such as the transactional history and available balances of your eligible prepaid accounts.

DATA SYNCHRONIZATION

We make every effort to ensure that your use of any of the Online Services is synchronized between the various access methods. There are some rare instances, however, where the information available through the Online Services may be delayed or different from the information that is available within the various Online Services access methods or through customer service. Additionally, some information available through customer service may not be immediately available via Online Services, or it may be described using different terminology. In the event of any discrepancies, the prepaid account information provided through customer service controls. You agree that neither we nor our Service Providers will be liable for any errors or delays in the content provided through the Online Services, or for any actions taken in reliance thereon.

SECURITY; YOUR ROLE IN PROTECTING YOUR ID AND PASSWORD

Security

As a U.S. Bank customer engaging in Online Services, you have chosen a personal ID and password which allows you access to Online Services. Information you provide in connection with Online Services will be stored on secure servers and protected by advanced encryption techniques. These commercially reasonable security measures are intended to keep your important information secure and to prevent unauthorized access. Effective security, however, is partly contingent upon your responsible behavior in protecting your personal ID and password for Online Services. Please use maximum caution in protecting your personal ID and password.

Protecting Your U.S. Bank Personal ID and Password

You are responsible for keeping your personal ID and password confidential. You are also responsible for ensuring that you have logged out when your online banking session is complete to prevent unauthorized persons from using Online Services.

If you give anyone access to your personal ID and password, you agree that each person will be acting as your agent and on your behalf and will be bound by this Agreement and any separate agreement governing your prepaid account. Any arrangements between you and such other person are strictly between you, and we are not liable for such other person's access or actions. We may rely and act on all instructions received via our web sites using your personal ID and password, and all transactions performed, even if not intended by you, are considered transactions authorized by you. You agree that any transaction that would otherwise require two or more signatures will not apply to Online Services.

Contact us at a number listed on the back of your prepaid card if:

- You would like to change, disable, or revoke your password; or
- You believe that your password or other means to access Online Services has been lost or stolen; or
- You believe that someone may attempt to use Online Services without your consent or has transferred money without your permission.

For additional information about unauthorized transactions, please see your cardholder agreement.

This includes, but is not limited to, name, address, phone numbers and email addresses. Changes can be made online or by calling us at a number listed on the back of your prepaid card. The latest version of Adobe Reader is available for free at www.adobe.com.

CELLULAR PHONE CONTACT POLICY

By providing us with any telephone number used for a mobile or other wireless device now or in the future, including a number that you later convert to a cell phone number, you are expressly consenting to receiving communications - including but not limited to prerecorded or artificial voice message calls, text messages, and calls made by an automatic telephone dialing system - from us and our affiliates and agents regardless of the purpose of the communication. Calls and messages may incur access fees from your cellular provider.

Unless you exercise the option to prohibit sharing information within the U.S. Bank family or with our financial partners as described in the U.S. Bank Privacy Policy, personal information about you may be used to determine your eligibility for financial products and services that may be offered by U.S. Bank, its affiliates and financial partners. We may also disclose information to third parties about your prepaid account or the transactions you make in accordance with the law as outlined in the U.S. Bank Privacy Policy.

Monitoring and Recording Communications

You understand and agree that we may monitor and/or record any communications between you and us for quality control and other permitted business purposes. You also understand and agree that this monitoring or recording may be done without any further notice to you or anyone acting on your behalf.

Location Based Information

If you use any location-based feature of any Online Service (such as our ATM locator on a mobile device) you agree that your geographic location and other personal information may be accessed and disclosed through the application or service. For more information on how we use and store your personal data, please reference the U.S. Bank Privacy Policy.

FEES AND CHARGES

Existing financial fees and charges associated with your U.S. Bank prepaid accounts will continue to apply. There may be additional fees and charges for Online Services as described on our web sites, in a pricing guide, or in this Agreement; these fees and charges may be changed in our sole discretion. You agree to pay all such fees and charges and authorize us to deduct the calculated amount from your U.S. Bank prepaid accounts. You are responsible for any and all other fees and charges that may be assessed by your telephone company, wireless carrier, internet service provider, or any other third party provider you may engage.

MOBILE BANKING SOFTWARE LICENSE

You may access select Online Services on a mobile device by using our mobile banking application available on Android or iPhone. We reserve the right to modify the scope of the Online Services available on our mobile application at any time and you agree that some or all of the Online Services may not be accessible or may have limited utility over some mobile networks, such as while roaming.

Subject to your compliance with this Agreement, you are hereby granted a personal limited license (“License”) to download, install and use the mobile banking application software (“Software”) on your mobile device within the United States and its territories. You are permitted to use content delivered to you through the Software for personal use only and you may not copy, reproduce, distribute, or create derivative works from this content for any other purpose. Further, you agree not to reverse engineer or reverse compile any aspect of the Software.

This License shall be deemed revoked immediately upon:

- The termination of your enrollment in Online Services in accordance with this Agreement;
- Your deletion of the Software from your mobile device;
- Your noncompliance with this Agreement; or
- Written notice to you at any time, with or without cause.

In the event this License is revoked for any of the foregoing reasons, you agree to promptly delete the Software from your mobile device if you have not already done so.

This License does not amend or supersede any agreements you may have with your mobile service carrier or provider. You understand that those agreements may provide for fees, limitations and other restrictions which might impact your use of the Software (for example, your mobile service carrier or provider may impose data usage or text message charges for downloading the Software, receiving or sending mobile banking text messages, or other use of your mobile device when using the Software), and you agree to be solely responsible for all such fees, limitations and restrictions. You agree that your mobile service carrier or provider is responsible for its products and services and it is responsible for the operation, security, functionality or availability of any mobile device or mobile network which you utilize to access the Software.

ACCESSING ONLINE SERVICES FROM OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES

We do not make any representations that any content or use of any Online Service is appropriate or available for use in locations outside of the United States, and accessing Online Services from territories where any content or use of any Online Service is illegal is prohibited by U.S. Bank. If you choose to access Online Services from locations outside the United States, you do so at your own risk and you are responsible for compliance with local laws.
